Orientation Programme – July Session 2025

Date: 15th November, 2025

Time: 11:00 A. M.

Report

The Learner's Study Centre (LSC-02907) at Indraprastha College for Women successfully organized its Orientation Programme for the July Session 2025 on 15th November 2025. The event was significant not only for welcoming the fresh batch of learners but also for marking the formal inauguration of one of the largest Learner Support Centers under Regional Centre-02 (RC-02) of IGNOU, New Delhi. The Programme drew an impressive gathering of newly enrolled undergraduate and postgraduate learners from diverse academic backgrounds, reflecting both the enthusiasm of the students and the credibility of the Centre.

The occasion was graced by esteemed dignitaries from IGNOU. Dr. D. P. Singh, Director of RC-02, presided over the event, accompanied by Deputy Director, Dr. Rita. Their presence added immense value to the Programme and reinforced the importance of learner support within the Open and Distance Learning (ODL) system. The LSC Coordinator, Dr. J. P. Singh, along with Assistant Coordinators Dr. Aakash Upadhyay, Ms. Priyanka Danu, Dr. Raghav, Dr. Krushnapriya Sahoo, and Dr. Priya Sharma, were actively involved in hosting and coordinating the event. The administrative and office staff of the Centre also contributed significantly to ensuring the smooth organization of the day's activities.

The Programme commenced with a ribbon-cutting ceremony, signifying the inauguration of LSC-02907 under the newly allotted Regional Centre. On this occasion, Principal of the college Prof. Poonam Kamaria sent her best wishes to all the students in embarking their journey with IGNOU. This was followed by a warm welcome extended to students, dignitaries, and staff members. A brief felicitation ceremony honored the visiting officials for their continued support and guidance. In his address, Dr. D. P. Singh emphasized the vision and mission of IGNOU, the significance of accessible education, and the central role of learner support centers in maintaining academic quality. Dr. Rita, in her address, highlighted the responsibilities of students in distance education and encouraged them to take full advantage of the resources made available by the university.

A pivotal part of the Programme was an extensive and informative presentation delivered by Dr. Rita. She meticulously guided students through the entire academic journey at IGNOU, covering essential aspects such as admission procedures, re-registration, assignment submission guidelines, examination processes, result declarations, grievance redressal systems, and the convocation process. The presentation was designed to ensure that learners clearly understood their responsibilities and the support mechanisms available at every stage of their degree pursuit.

Following this, Dr. Aakash Upadhyay introduced all members of the LSC team to the students, ensuring transparency and familiarity within the learning environment. Several academic counsellors who were present also interacted with the students, helping them gain clarity about academic expectations and course structures. The Orientation then moved into an interactive Question-and-Answer session, during which students raised their doubts regarding academic schedules, study materials, counselling sessions, examinations, and support services. The dignitaries, coordinators, and counsellors responded to each query with patience and precision, ensuring that the learners felt reassured and well-informed.

The Programme concluded with a formal Vote of Thanks, expressing gratitude to the dignitaries, LSC team members, counsellors, and students for their participation and contribution to the event. Before dispersal, students were requested to fill out a Google Form, which served as both an attendance record and a feedback mechanism to help the Centre improve future programmes.

Overall, the Orientation Programme proved to be a resounding success. It not only provided learners with essential academic guidance but also fostered a sense of belonging and confidence as they began their educational journey with IGNOU. The collective efforts of the entire LSC-02907 team, along with the support from RC-02, set an encouraging precedent for the upcoming sessions. With renewed motivation and enthusiasm, the Centre looks forward to organizing more such enriching programmes in the future.
